The CALVERTANA

Published by

Foreword

Being freshmen is one of the most difficult positions we will ever have in life. It's the first really big step we must take in our lives; we enter a different school, meet different people, make adjustments to a schedule, new subjects and teachers, and prepare ourselves for our vocation in life.

Just as the first year as a student at Calvert was difficult for us, so it is for a teacher. When our class of 1956 faced that first year there was also a teacher, who, in a way, had to make the same step.

Having this in common with our class, besides being our Religion instructor for three of our four years at Calvert, he became our friend, sticking by us in our difficulties and sharing in our activities.

Our prom, class parties, play, and operetta were all examples of the many events he helped us with, not just with supervision, but by doing more than his share.

This past school year, when we've all had worries and problems concerning our future, we again went to him for help.

This year, when everyone is paying tribute to Pope Pius XII on the occasion of his eightieth birthday and the seventeenth anniversary of his coronation as Pope, we wish to pay our tribute to another representative of Christ. At Calvert, we look upon him as the Catholics of the world look upon the Pope—as a true friend and counsellor whose shining example greatly influences our spiritual lives.

We, the class of 1956, wish to express our sincere thanks to Father Dunn, our assistant principal, by praying for him and by dedicating to him this volume of the Calvertana.

Dedication

Bishop of Toledo

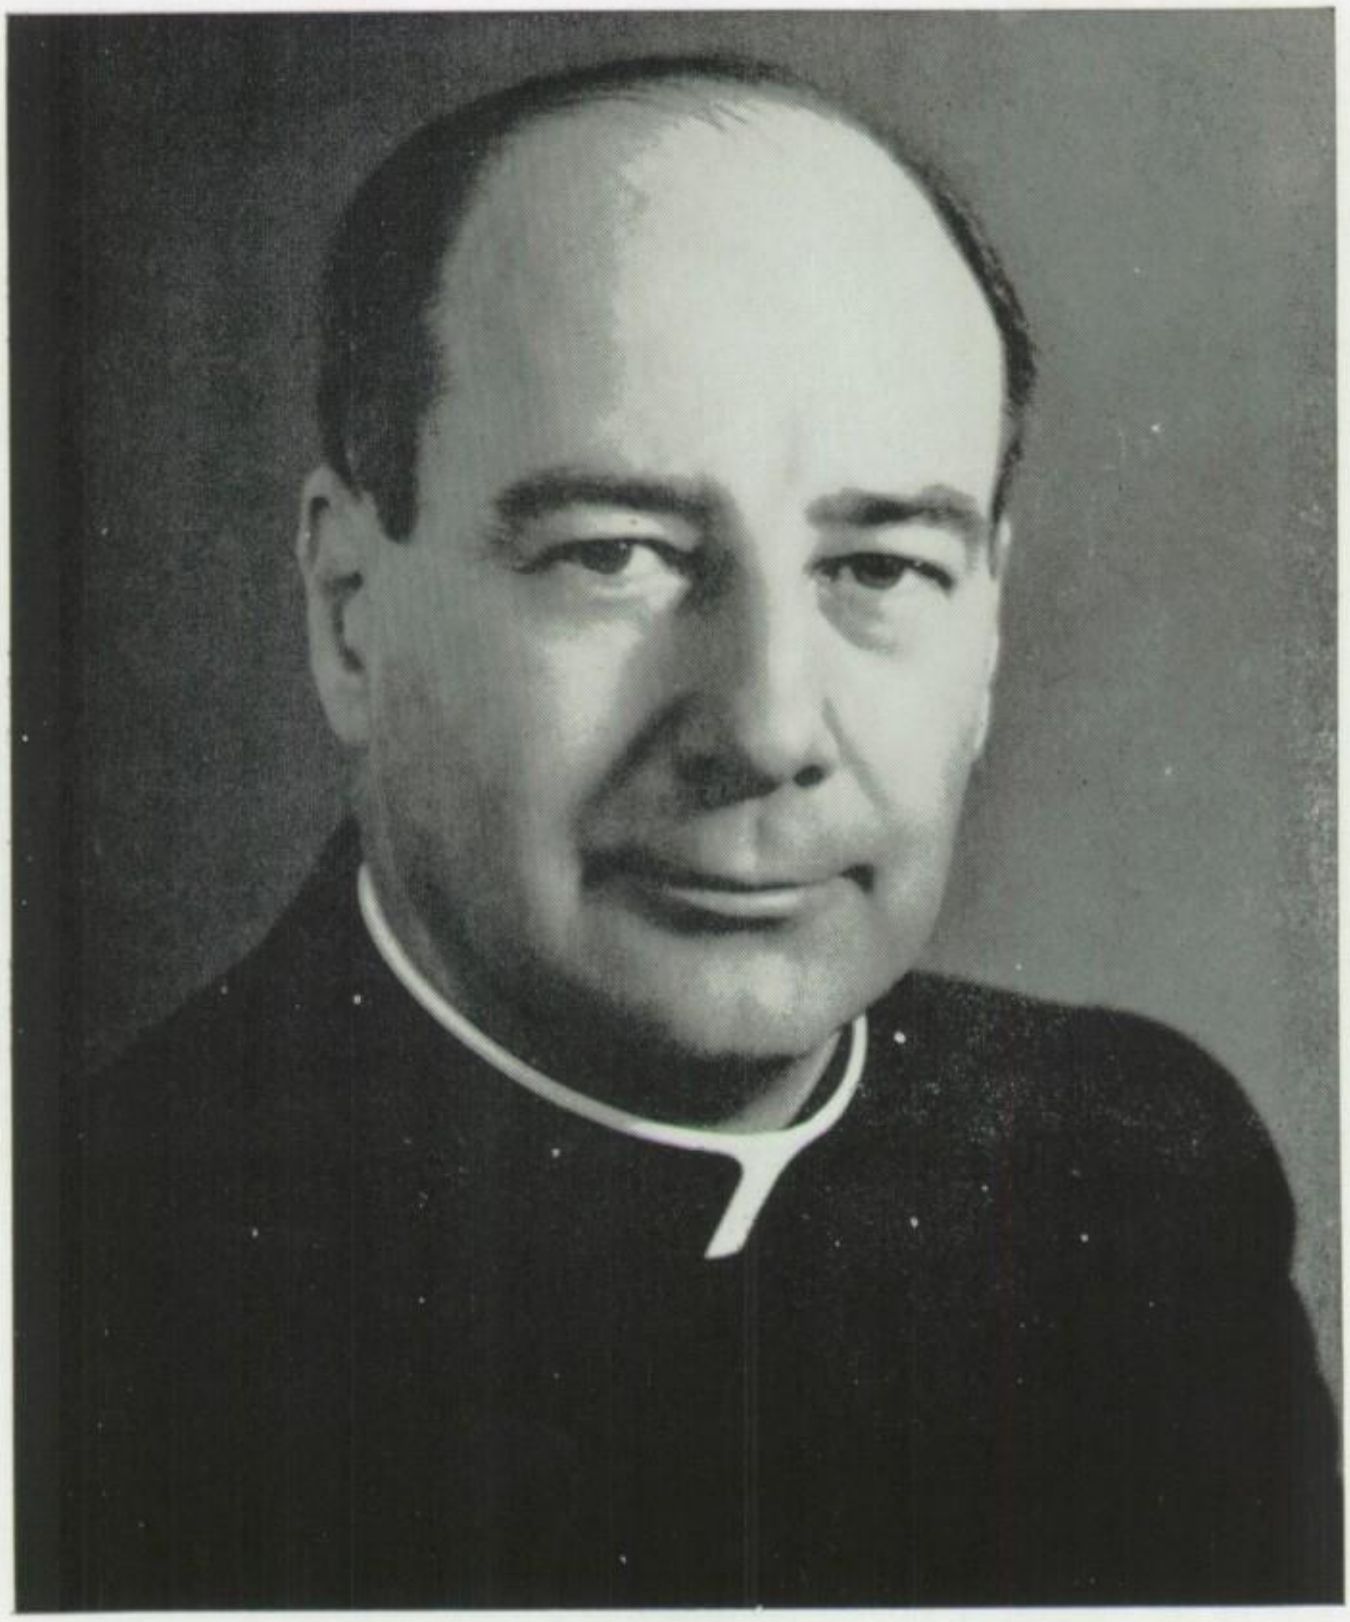
His Excellency
MOST REVEREND GEORGE J. REHRING, D. D.

By being present at the Commencement exercises, and presenting the diplomas to the honored seniors, His Excellency, the Most Reverend George J. Rehring, D.D., Bishop of Toledo, displays a sincere interest in the students of Calvert. Moreover, to the student placing highest in a competitive Religion test, he awards the Bishop's Cross. He expresses by these actions, and also through his letters to the faithful, his interest in them and his concern for their welfare.

Because we realize how busy he is, and because we are grateful for his concern for us, the students of Calvert take this opportunity to thank our Bishop for all he is doing and has done for Calvert and its students.

Faculty

Principal



REV. JOSEPH D. SHENK, M.A., B.S.E.

Helping students with homework problems, selecting subjects best suited to a student's ability, directing girls and boys to a right vocation, all are part of a busy day in Father Shenk's life at Calvert.

Father is an ardent supporter of school actitivites such as the prom, play, operetta, Calvert News, Calvertana, Band, athletics and the school clubs.

His main interest lies, however, in the students' spiritual life. Some of the ways that Father increases devotion to Our Lord, the Blessed Virgin, and the saints are by providing the students with an annually conducted three-day retreat, by re-arranging the schedule so that students can attend Mass and receive Holy Communion on the First Fridays, and by personally helping them with any problem, no matter how small, they may have.

The reason behind Father's great interest in the students' spiritual welfare is Father's deep devotion to the Catholic faith.

The students all thank Father for his sincere interest and help.

REV. EDWARD C. DUNN, M. A.

Assistant Principal

Assisting Father Shenk is the difficult task of running a school is our assistant principal, Father Dunn.

Besides the regular positions of senior Religion instructor and director of the penalty period, Father also served as one of the directors of the operetta and the senior play, and aided the different classes with their mission parties.

One might think he wouldn't have any time left, but never a day passes when he isn't with a student, either helping him, discussing his problems, or listening to the latest news concerning extracurricular activities.

Calvert, for these reasons, is greatly indebted to Father Dunn.

Board of Fiscal Control

From the earliest days of our childhood we have always been taken into the friendship of our pastors, who baptized us, heard our first confession, and gave us our first Holy Communion.

Monsignor Kinnane and Monsignor Gabel have provided us with fine elementary schools and now with a brand new high school. Realizing the problems that both pastors face because of their own building program makes us more than ever grateful for the financial assistance given the Calvert students. When we realize that our parishes provide the larger portion of the tuition for each of us, we can see that our pastors wish to give us the finest Catholic education.

The students of Calvert High School wish to express to Monsignor Kinnane and Monsignor Gabel their sincere thanks for the guidance and interest that they have always shown from our earliest years.

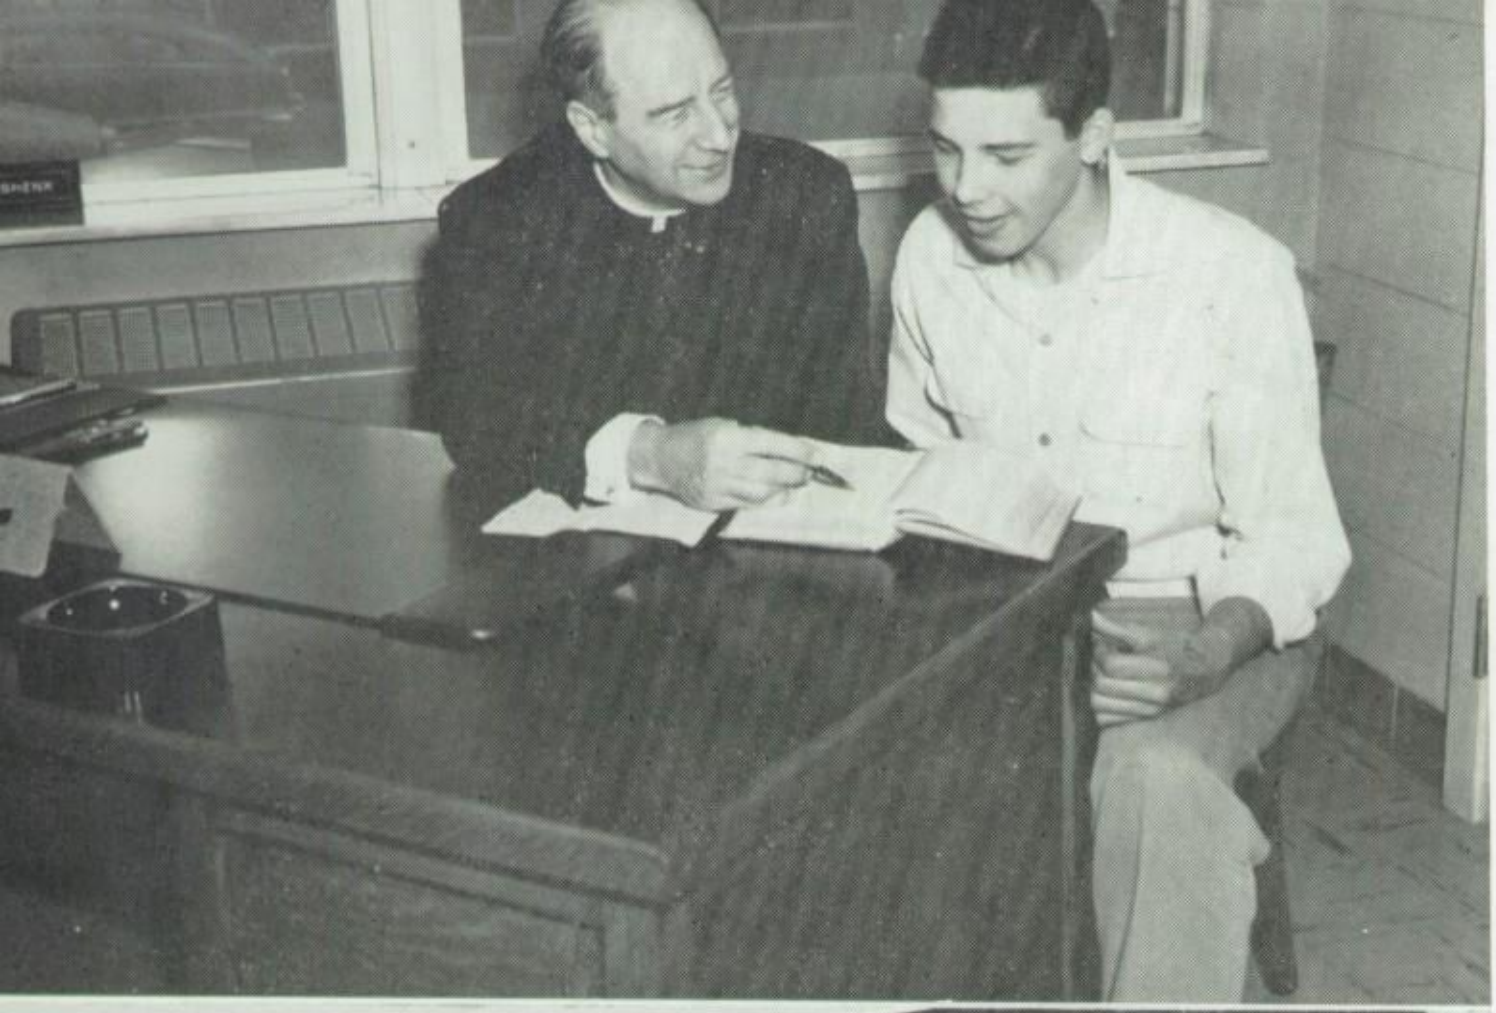
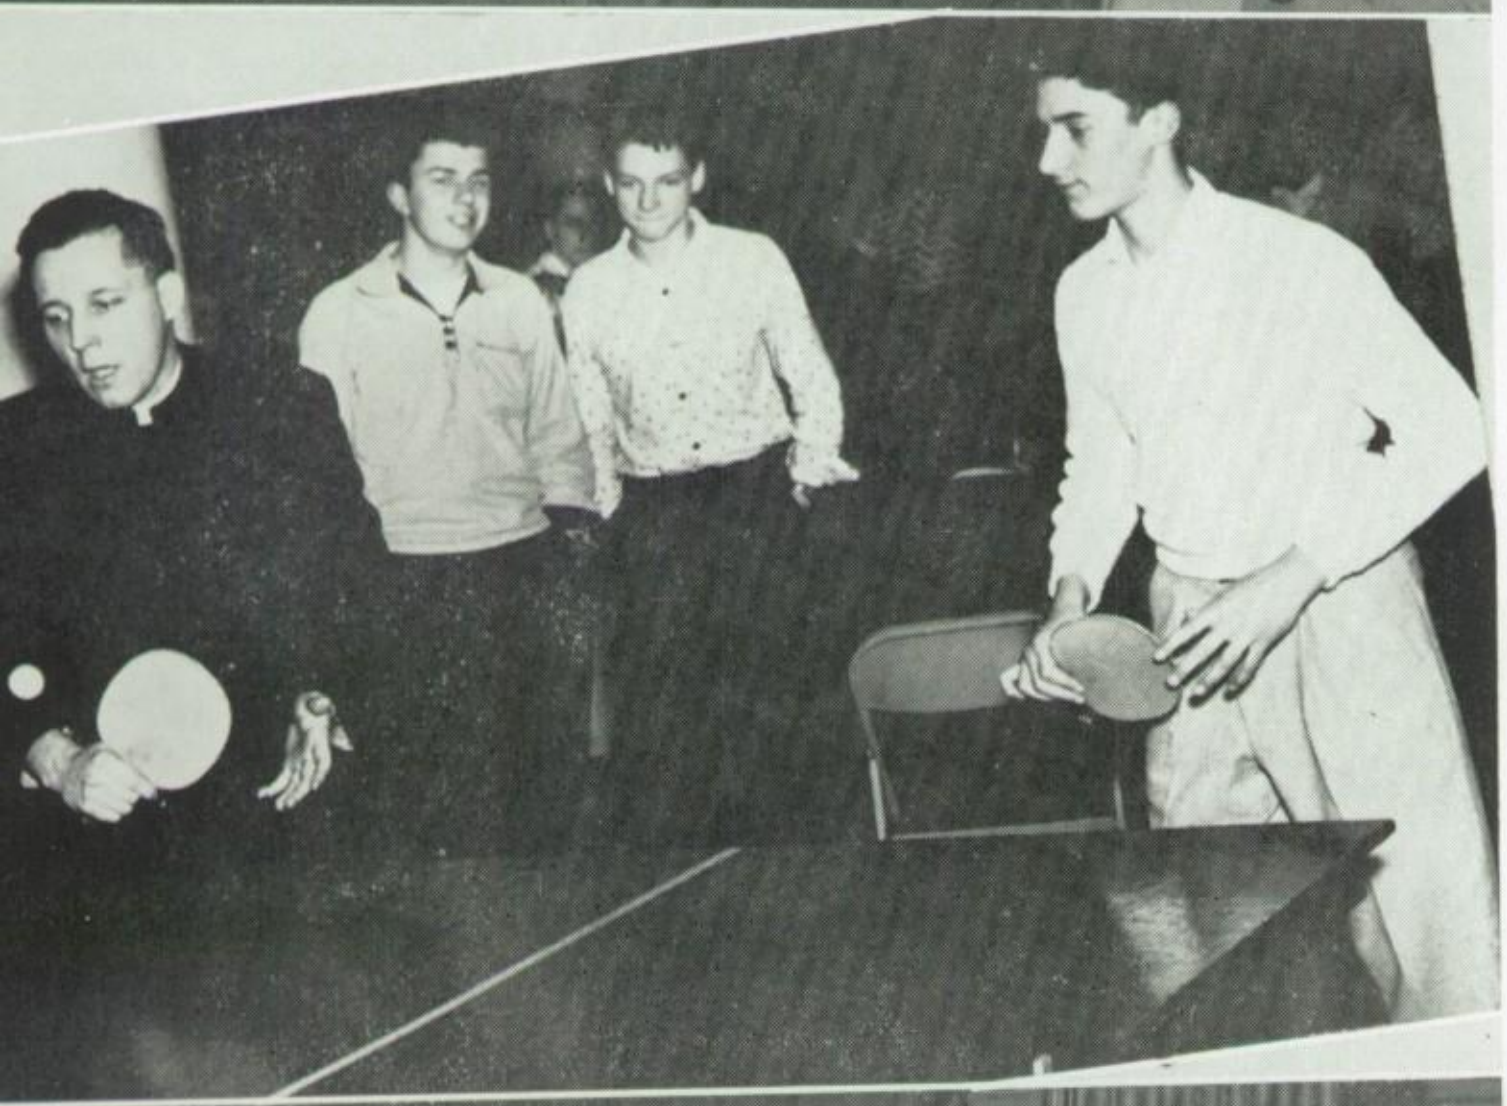
Action Snapshots



Father Shenk is willingly explaining a problem in algebra to John Sauber, freshman.



At the mission festival, Father Dunn is displaying his talent at ping pong while Pasquale Patuto, his partner, watches the play. James Reinhart and Robert Somers are the onlookers.

With happy smiles, Mrs. McClellan and Mrs. Steinmetz busily serve soup to the line of hungry Calvert students.

Classes and Activities

Religion

Senior girls—Phyllis Brickner, Carmela Patuto, Patricia Stofer, Mary Pahl, and Margaret Immele—enjoy being taught their Religion by Father Dunn.

Dios te salve. Maria, llena eres el Senor es contigo, bendita tu las mujeres; y bendito es el fru

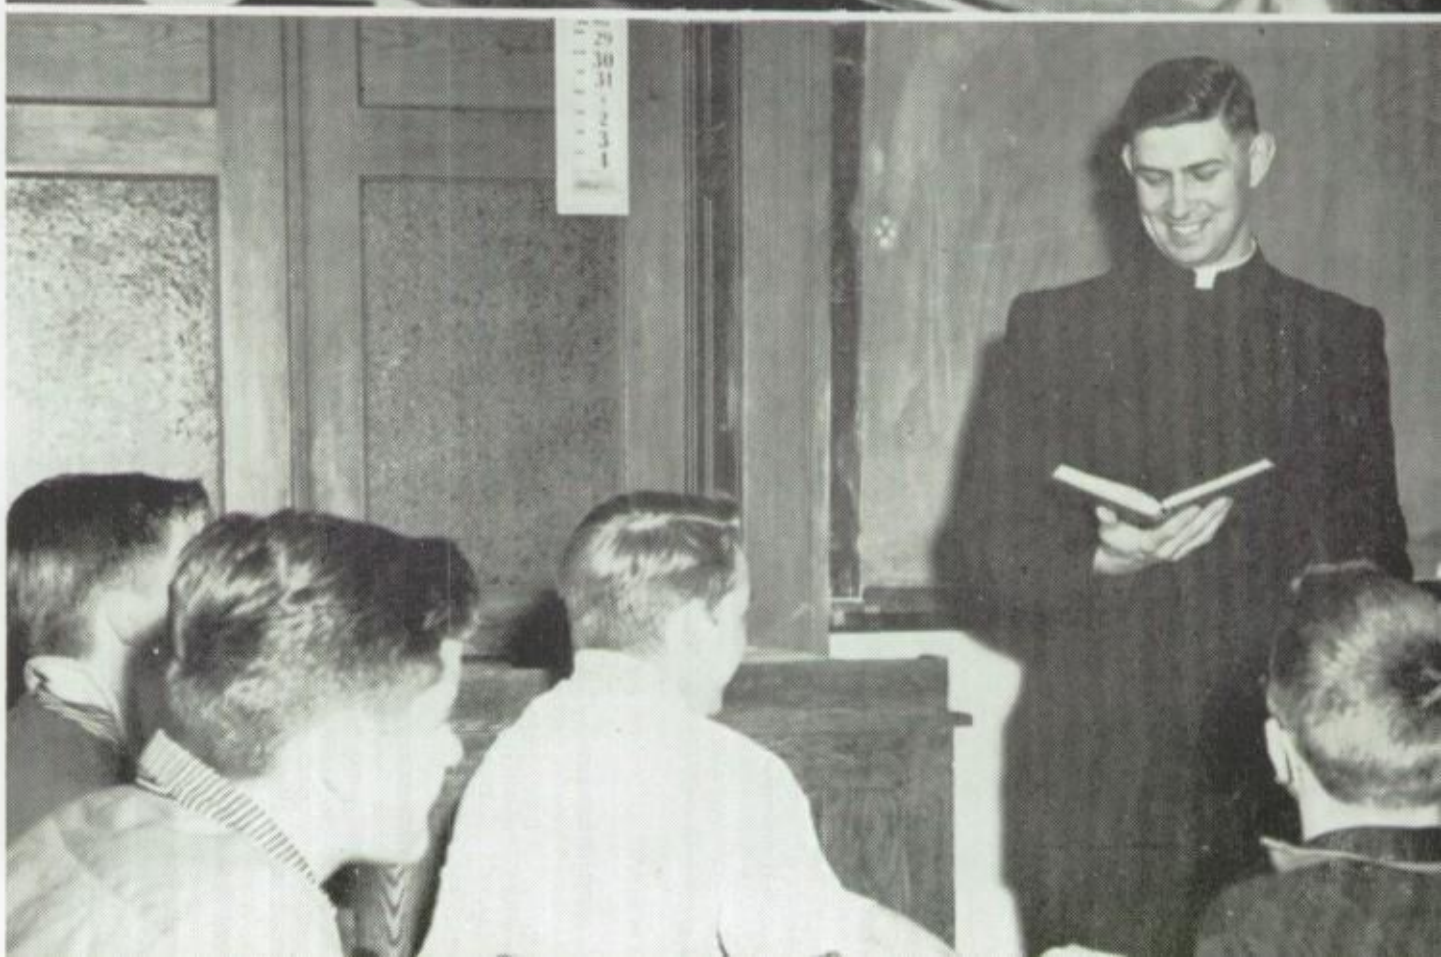
Eager to learn more about their faith, the freshman class listens attentively to Father Reichert.

With Father Walsh, sophomore boys — William Crist, James Ring, David Seislove, and Louis Walliser— are certain to attain knowledge to be desired concerning Religion.



Religion Honor Roll

Being placed on the Religion honor roll is a very high achievement. It means that the student had at least a B+ average in Religion and character rating during his four years in high school.

From this list two students are chosen, by the junior and senior class, to crown the Blessed Mother at the annual May crowning.

This year the honor goes to Nancy Renninger and James Poignon. The banner carriers are Barbara Michaels and Paul Herig.

Scholastic Honor Roll

Climaxing four years of study, the students attaining an average of 90 per cent are placed on the scholastic honor roll.

The honors of being class salutatorian and valedictorian are given to the top ranking girl and boy that accepts.

Judette Gase, the senior with the highest scholastic average, declined.

Mary Pahl and Donald Barrick accepted these honors for the class of '56.

Guidance reading on careers can be found in the Calvert library. Seeking new titles for vocational and professional material are Carole Gilgannon, William Crist, Michael Englehart, David Seislove, and Patricia Patterson.

Any student who is interested in a certain trade or profession should come to the Calvert library where he can find books to fit his particular needs.

Calvert Library

Spiritual books, which guide high school minds, form a big factor in the annual retreat. Many students took advantage of the display in the library to read about the lives of the saints and books on living for God.

Selecting such books are Henrietta Grillot, Rita Hayward, James Reinhart, John Leahy, and Carol Kuhn.

Modern History

Checking the map of Europe in the middle of the 18th century (1740) are: Timothy O'Connell, Michael McCrory, Mr. Kukoy, Jeannine Company, Carol Fisher, and James Snyder.

American History

Planning the North's blockade of the South are Sister Aloysia's students—James Reinhart, Michael Perna, and Mary Lou Brady.

Ancient History

Inter Nos

Reading past publications of the Inter Nos, a quarterly paper studied by all classes and sent to other schools as an exchange, is this year's staff of fourth year Latin students — Shirley Renninger, Martha Fisher, Ann Steinbaugh, Judette Gase, Shirley Heyman, Ann Moran, Barbara Breidenbach, Carol Kuebler, Margaret Immele, Donald Barrick, Sylvia Omlor, Jeannette Kleinhenz, and Irene Gaietto.

Dios te salve María llena eres de gracia.
el Señor es contigo. bendita tu eres entre todas
las mujeres; y bendito es el fruto de tu vientre
Jesus. Santa María, Madre de Dios, ruega por

Spanish

Latin

As Betty Lucas writes the declension of the noun, "silva", a group of freshman Latin students watch. They are Judith Drew, Dorothea Esselman, Martha Moore, Sandra Walk, Helen Hess, Evelyn Rogier, Mary Zoeller, Patricia Weinandy, Robert Reinman, Michael Ardner, Ancilla Fisher, and Marilyn Immele.

Science

Chemistry

Sister Maurice's students are in the process of making bromine. Demonstrating this process are Barbara Michaels, Jean Ring, Robert Frederick, while Shirley Renninger, Mary Ellen Wangler watch attentively. Kathleen Brain, Kenneth Kuhn, Paulette Omlor, and Joseph Depinet are weighing out some of the materials.

Physics

The boiling point of water and the melting point of snow are subjects of interest to several members of the physics class. David Bihn obtains primary data for the experiment on the heat of fusion of ice. The students are Roger Brubaker, David Bihn, Charles Gillig, Paul Gatton, Lawrence Zimmer, Shirley Rogala, Paul Dunn and Kathleen Gase.

Biology

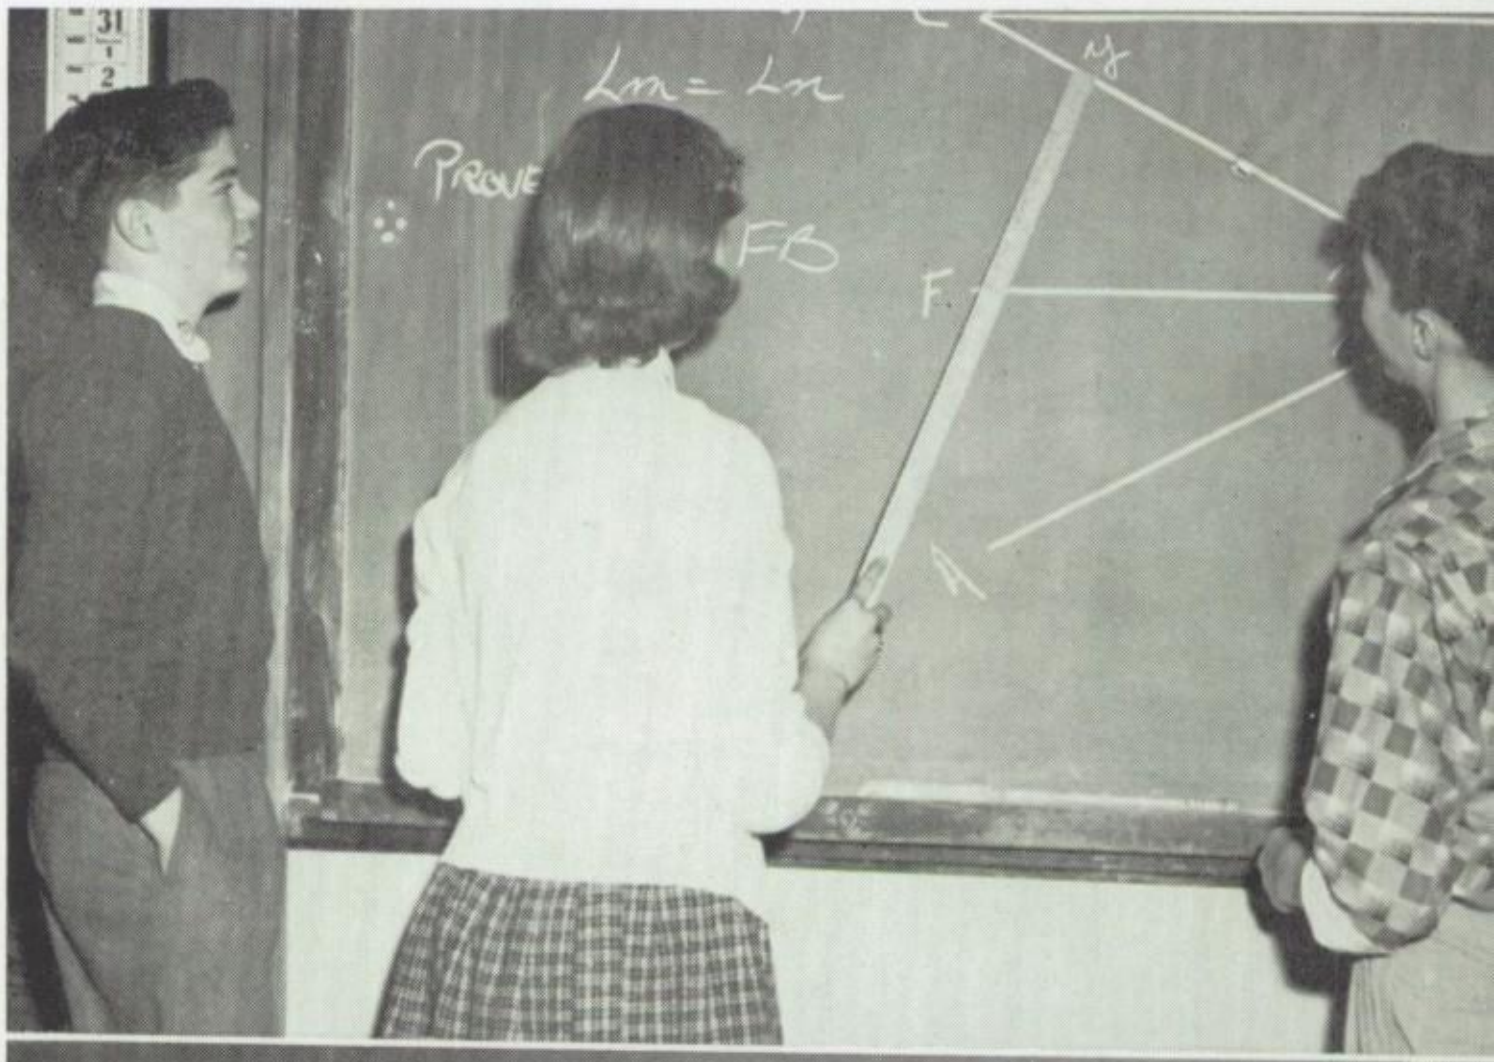
Part of the human skeleton, the femur, is being explained by Betty Renninger. Looking on dubiously are Carmela Perna, Ann Miller, Irma Baugher, Margaret Daniel and Betty Alt.

General Science

Mr. Kukoy is explaining the rock formation of quartz and shale to his students — Milton Gibson, Daniel McGowan, James Saad, Joyce Theis and Mary Lou Janovich.

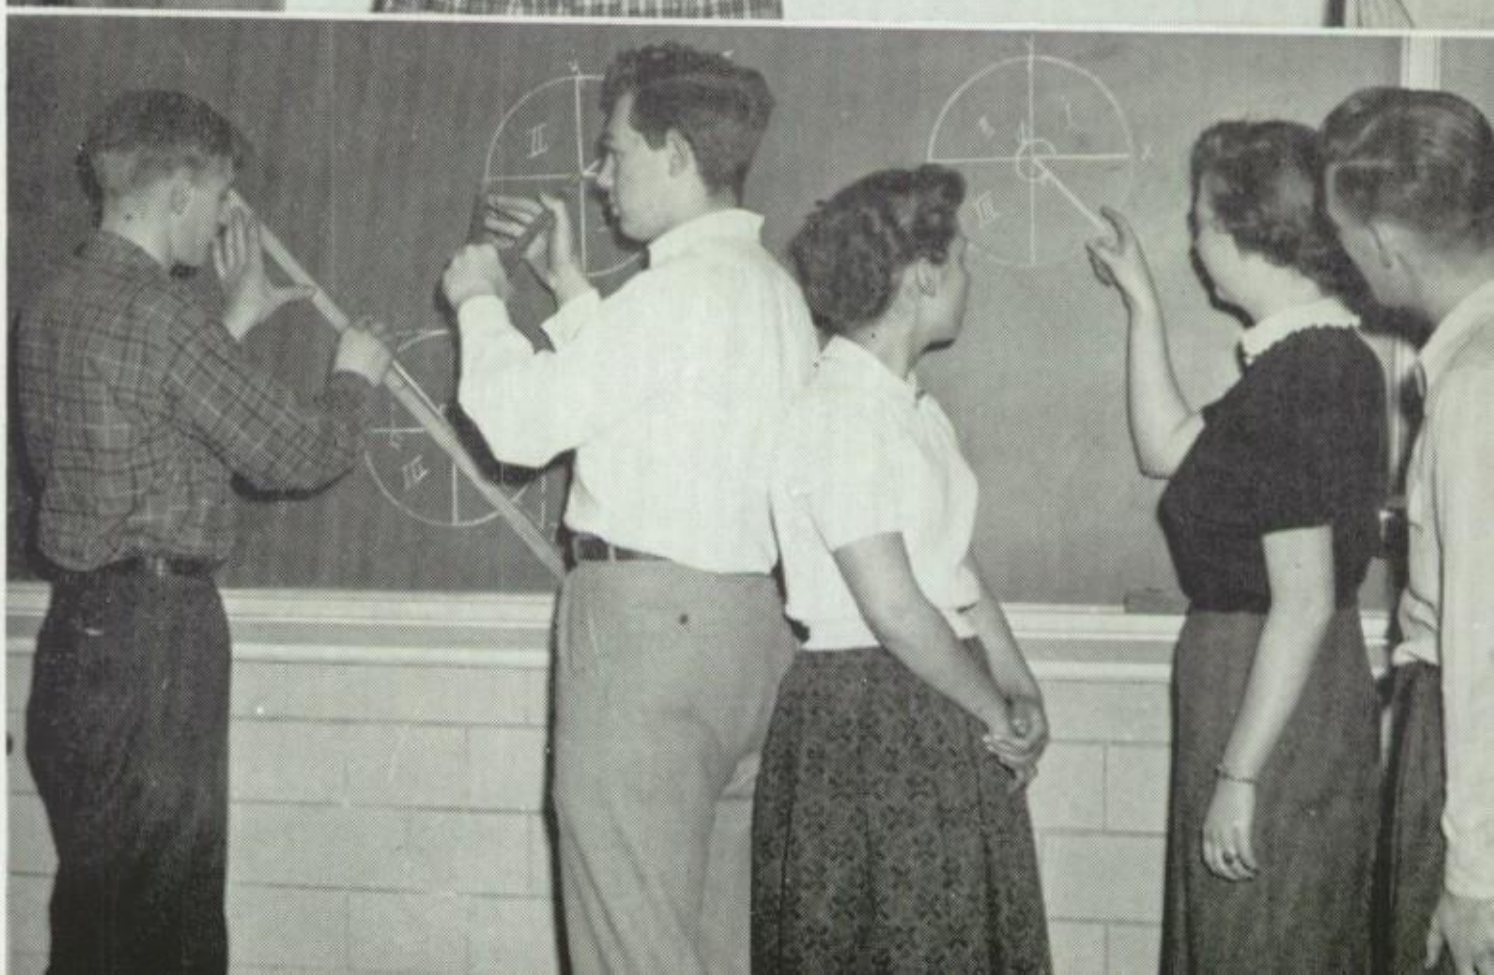
Geometry

In Mr. Diringer's geometry class Paul Hemminger, Marcia Chester, and Pasquale Patuto are busy explaining the proof of a problem.



Trigonometry

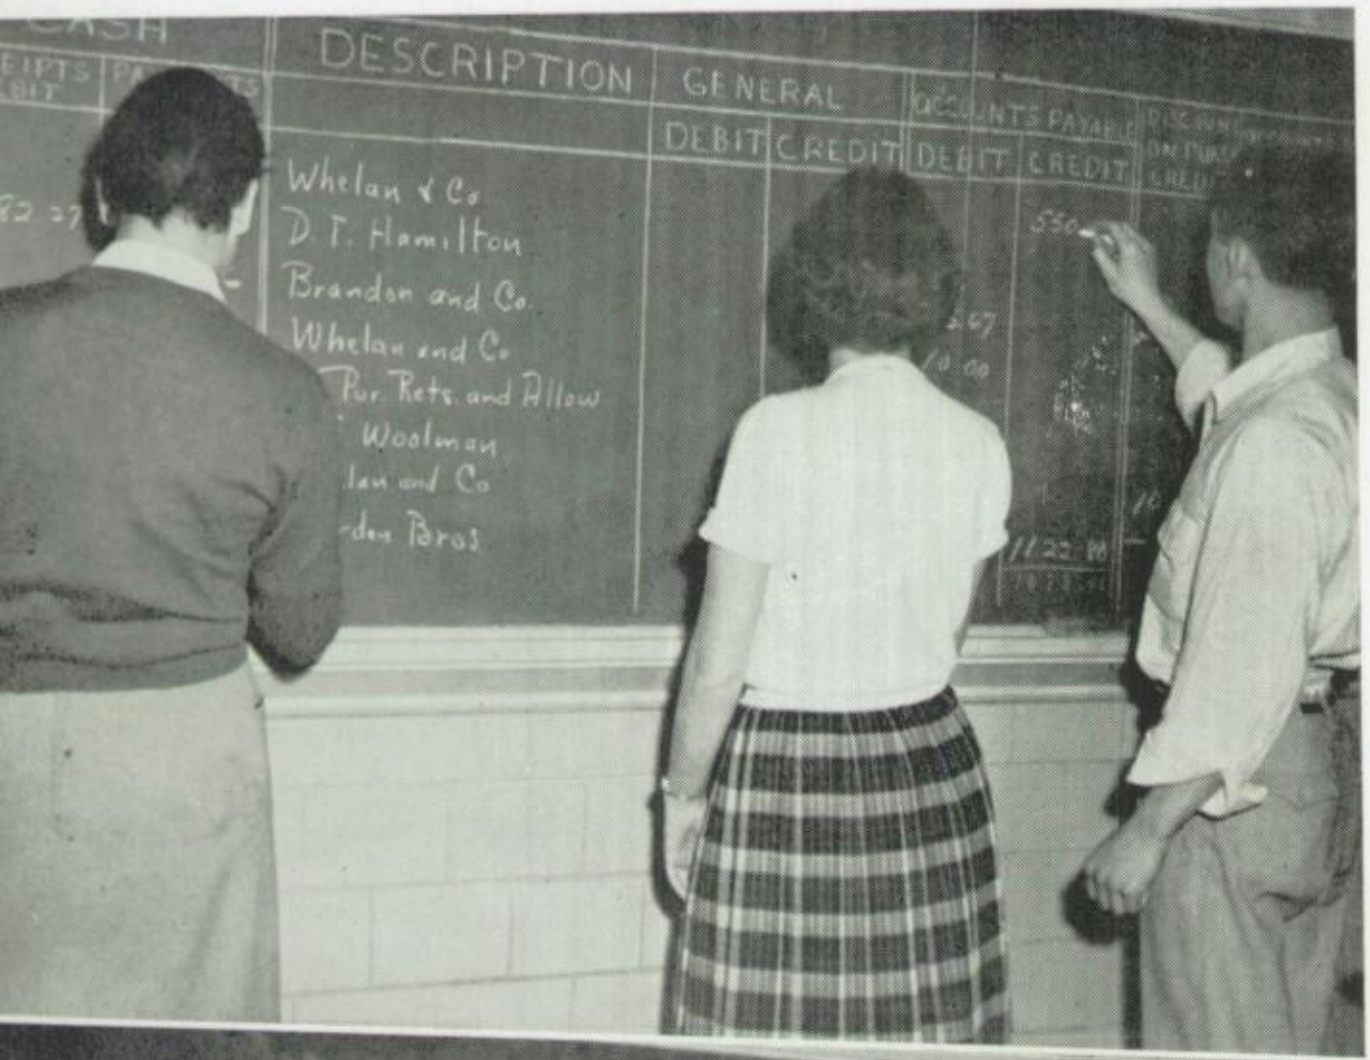
Joseph Depinet, Robert Frederick, Mary Pahl, Kathleen Brain and Kenneth Kuhn are diligently studying and demonstrating the functions of an angle in Sister Cordula's fourth year math class.



Commerce

Typing

These 8th period typing students are so busy that they couldn't even look up. They are — Irene Magers, Joyce Theis, Phyllis Brickner, Ann Steinbaugh, Irene Gaietto, Barbara Breitenbach, Barbara Michaels, and Mary Ferstler.



Bookkeeping

Chalking up a few answers are — Irene Magers, Patricia Stofer, and Paul Herig of the senior bookkeeping class.

Shorthand

Faster and faster is the motto of these senior shorthand students. They are— Sue Omlor, Marjorie Warnement, Donna Steinmetz and Alma Breidenbach.

Art

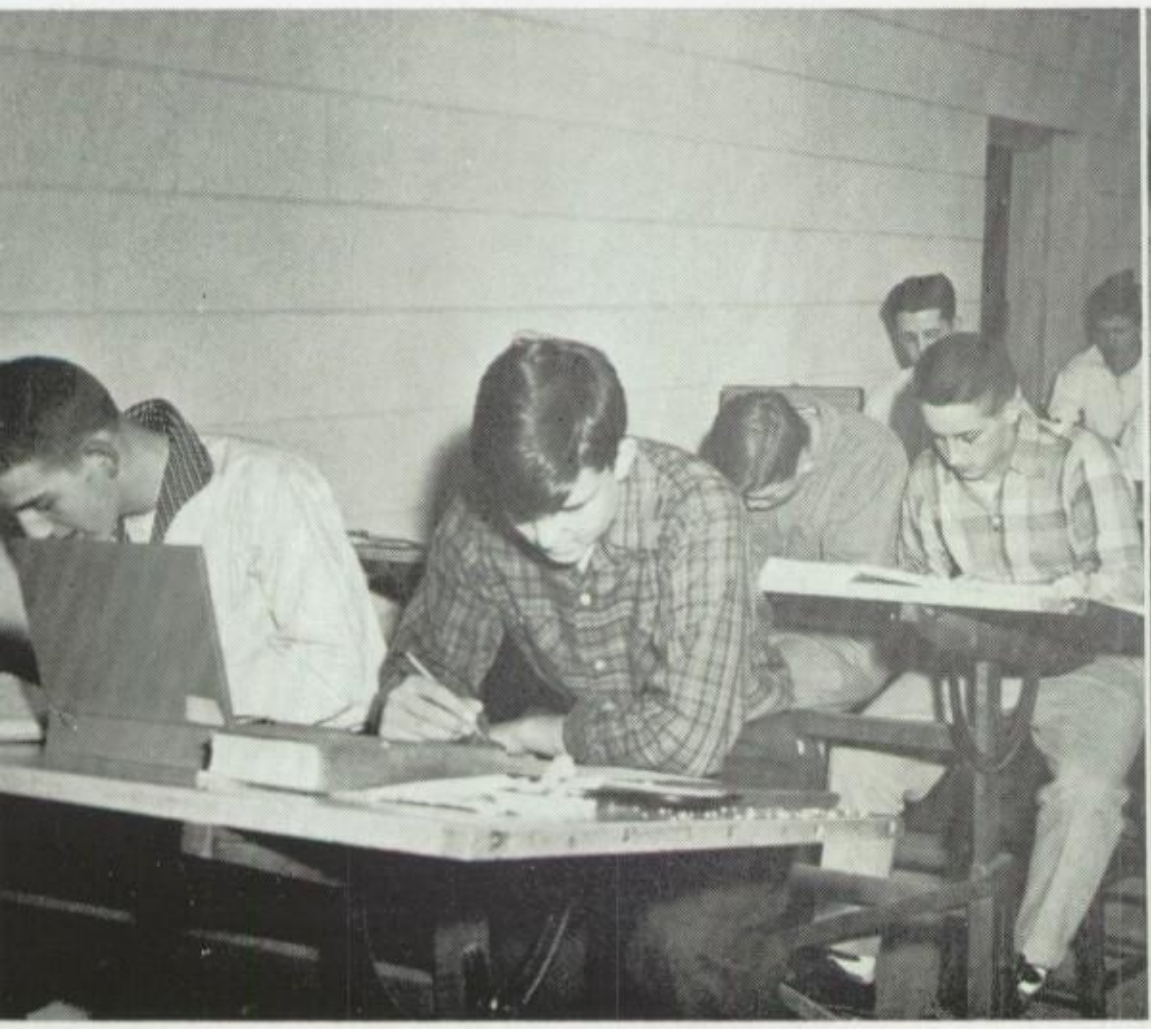
Mechanical Drawing

Working hard to get their plates in on time are Donald Kauffman, Michael Leahy, Louis Dunn, Michael Wagner, Paul Herig, and Frederick Cramer.



Industrial Arts

Checking their measurements are the future carpenters of America, Michael Kern, Anthony Schetter, Kenneth Hess, Ronald Shook, and William Renninger.

English

Preparing for the task of editing the junior issue of the Calvert News are Harold Hohman, Carol Kuhn, Robert Somers, Dan Colatruglio, Michael Leahy, Betty Seifert, Joan Eschenbrenner, and Imelda Wise.

The officers of the student council for the '55-'56 year— Mary Pahl, secretary, Anthony San Gregory, president, Michael Flynn, vice-president, and Shirley Rogala, treasurer — consult with Father Shenk about the last meeting.

Displaying pictures from the Merchant of Venice are Clarann Haefling and Ann Loesser. Charles Ardner, Charles Bish, Daniel Clevenger, Michael Hart, Robert Altwies, Michael Keller, Paul Sheeley, Michael Huffman, Robert Reinman, John Benner, Daniel McGowan, and Ronald Rochester listen attentively.

Examining the blouse pattern are Mary Ley and Judette Shelt. Susan Leahy and Donna Frederick mark the material, while Sara Grover puts on the finishing tucks.

Home Economics

Preparing a cheese sauce are Natalie Werner, Marilyn Borer, and Joanne Renninger. Joyce Bentz checks the recipe while Beatrice Depinet and Doris Jordan wash the dishes.

Co-editors and Associates

Examining the fruit of their labors are co-editors, Mary Pahl and Eugene Stefanelli, with associate editors Carol Kuebler, Shirley Renninger, Martha Fisher, Rosemary Winterhalter and Jeannette Kleinhenz. Two other associate editors, Barbara Welter and Roger Welter, were absent on the day the pictures were taken.

News Writers

Reading their stories on the front page of the Calvert News are news writers—Mary Ellen Wangler, Karen Cramer, Georgianna Bland, Kathleen Brain, Eugenia Welter, Ruth Holmer, Donald Weimerskirch, Janet Myers, Jacqueline Rex, Joan Bentz, Judette Gase, Mary Ferstler, Kenneth Kuhn, and Irene Gaietto.

Feature Staff, Typists

Pounding away at the keys are Ann Steinbaugh and Sue Omlor. The other staff members pictured here are feature writers and typists. They are Jean Ring, Ann Moran, Rosalie Elchert, Sylvia Omlor, Barbara Breitenbach, Nancy Renninger, Carolyn Zoll, Norma Frankhart, Carmela Patuto, Shirley Heyman, Deanna Werley, Regina Werling, and

Circulation Staff

Busy rushing the Calvert News on its way to subscribers are the members of the circulation department — Irene Magers, Mary Lou Janovich, Barbara Michaels, Virginia Jordan, Joyce Theis, Barbara Carp, Diane Kistler, Jeannette Theis, Marjorie Warnement, Donna Steinmetz, and Rosalie Aiello.

Mailing Staff

The mailing department, composed of Thomas Shook, Robert Frederick, Joseph Schreiner, Louis Robenalt, George Daniel, John Englehart, Donald Kauffman, Joseph Depinet, Gerald Sanders, Paul Herig, and Patricia Benner, finish up their work as the paper's photographer, Donald Barrick, looks on.

Sports, Alumni

The credit for the vivid and comprehensive sport stories, this year goes to William Renninger, Michael Wagner, William Black, and David Stevenson. Charlotte Amlin, Margaret Immele, Phyllis Brickner, Naomi Arbogast, Vivian Werner, and Patricia Stofer are the girls who keep us posted on the alumni activities.

Calvert Presents 'Babes in Toyland'

Marmaduke, the Inspector, discusses his plans to find Contrary Mary with the Widow Piper, Barnaby, Tom, and Hilda, the maid. In real life these characters are James McNulty, Carol Kuebler, Lawrence Shelt, James Dryfuse, and Mary Pahl.

"I Can't Do the Sum" seems to be the motto of the Piper children—Boy Blue, Peter, Mary, Jill, Sallie Waters, Bobby Shaftoe, Jack, Red Riding Hood, Tommy Tucker, Curly Locks, Little Miss Muffet, and Bo Peep. We know the Piper children better as—Gerard Welter, Paul Boes, Kathleen Gase, Shirley Rogala, Rosemary Winterhalter, Betty Seifert, Michael Flynn, Jacqueline Rex, Karen Cramer, Mary Ellen Wangler, Margaret Immele, and Paulette Omlor.

Putting the finishing touches on the scenery for Babes in Toyland are some of the students of the art class—Ronald Rochester, Ronald Kirian, Richard Kuhn, Michael Perna, Frederick Cramer, in front; James Unser, Jeanene Johnston, William Felter, Paul Sheeley, and Robert Williams in the rear.

Jane and Alan encounter a Spider, when they are lost in the Spider Forest. The Fairy Queen, with the help of the Bear, comes to their rescue. Students depicted in this scene are: Kenneth Kuhn, Thomas Huss, Barbara Welter, Constance Kimmet, and Agnes Welter.

The old miser Barnaby, Lawrence Shelt, tells Contrary Mary, Irene Gaietto, that Alan is to be beheaded by the two halfwitted pirates, Gonzorgo, Eugene Stefanelli, and Roderigo, David Stevenson.

The chorus, the Piper Children, the Dolls, and the Master Toymaker have gathered together in the workshop in Toyland to work on the toys.

First Row: Patricia McClellan, Anne Wade, Rebecca Jentgen, Eugene Stefanelli, Anthony San Gregory, Gerard Welter, Jeannette Lutz, Ruth Michaels, Margaret Immele, Paulette Omlor.

Second Row: Carol Kuhn, Mary Pahl, Rosemary Winterhalter, Thomas Shook, Daniel Colatruglio, Kenneth Kuhn, Mary Omlor, Angela Grillot, Linda Smith.

Fourth Row: Elizabeth Seifert, Kathleen Gase, Shirley Rogala, Constance Kimmet, Irene Gaietto, Barbara Welter, Carol Kuebler, Jacqueline Rex, Mary Ellen Wangler.

REV. C. C. HERINGHAUS

Glee Club Director

With the greatest happiness, Calvert welcomed back Father Heringhaus to direct the Glee Club this year.

But it must have been with even more joy to the fortunate alumni, who sang to the movement of his baton for 17 years, to see the present student body again under his direction.

Father's kindness and generosity brought him all the distance from North Auburn, where he was pastor, and later from Momineetown to direct the operetta, Babes in Toyland.

With few experienced voices, Father Heringhaus, worked many hours training for the production. Without his capable leadership and the confidence the students have in him, the operetta would not have been such a success.

Head Majorette

With a gay and winning smile, Sylvia Omlor has led Calvert's band during the past year. At the home games and the parades in Tiffin, Sylvia capably filled the position of chief majorette.

Majorettes

Adding vitality and vigor to all of Calvert's football games, Carol Fisher, Sylvia Omlor, and Margaret Mueller marched and twirled to the rhythm of Calvert's band.

Calvert Band

The trumpeters who blast out so violently, are—Rosalie Aiello, Naomi Arbogast, Diane Kistler, Adelene Aiello, Elizabeth Wilhelm, Patricia McClellan, Janis Graham, Richard Phillips, Sandra Kleinhenz, Nancy Vogel, and Donald Stein.

Calvert Band

The rhythm section keeps the Band in step; the bell lyre adds the melody; the flute players contribute the high notes. Students who play these instruments are: Lawrence Barrick, Thomas Shook, Karen Cramer, Judith Warnement, Barbara Welter, Ann Klopp, Georgianna Bland, Margaret Miller, Sharon Mitten, and Rita Werling.

All in harmony— Agnes Welter, Carol Kuebler, Ruth Kummerer, Martha Carpenter, Elizabeth Seifert, Mary Ellen Wangler, and Jacqueline Rex — produce "the sweetest music this side of heaven" on their saxophones.

Tooting away in the reed section are: Regina Polski, Irene Welty, Barbara Leahy, Rebecca Spencer, Kathleen Sorg, Judith Traunero, Eugenia Welter, Regina Werling, Daniel Stein, Charles Reinhart, Mary Ann Bell, Carol Maloy, Jeannette Kleinhenz, Carol Staib, and Gary Croy.

As co-editors of the Calvertana, Martha Fisher and Kenneth Kuhn have worked many long hours for the success of the senior yearbook. Through patience and hard work, the co-editors have produced a yearbook that will live forever in the hearts of every member of the senior class. The Calvertana holds the memories of all the happy events that will always remain the storehouse of treasures for the graduating class.

The Calvertana

The work on the Calvertana began back in January when the seniors solicited patrons to support it. The enthusiastic group, eager for the best yearbook ever, collected enough money for a padded cover, the first one in eight years.

When the patron drive ended, the co-operation didn't cease, for many gave up study halls and time outside school for the mounting of pictures, writing articles and captions, doing the art work and planning the pages.

This is all rewarded when the 1956 volume of the Calvertana comes out, different from other years in its pastel blue cover, to remind them not only of the work put into it, but also of the good times known at Calvert as students.

Business Managers

Business Managers, Patricia Stofer and Thomas Shook, put in many hours keeping a record of the money and pasting down the cards with the signatures of the patrons.

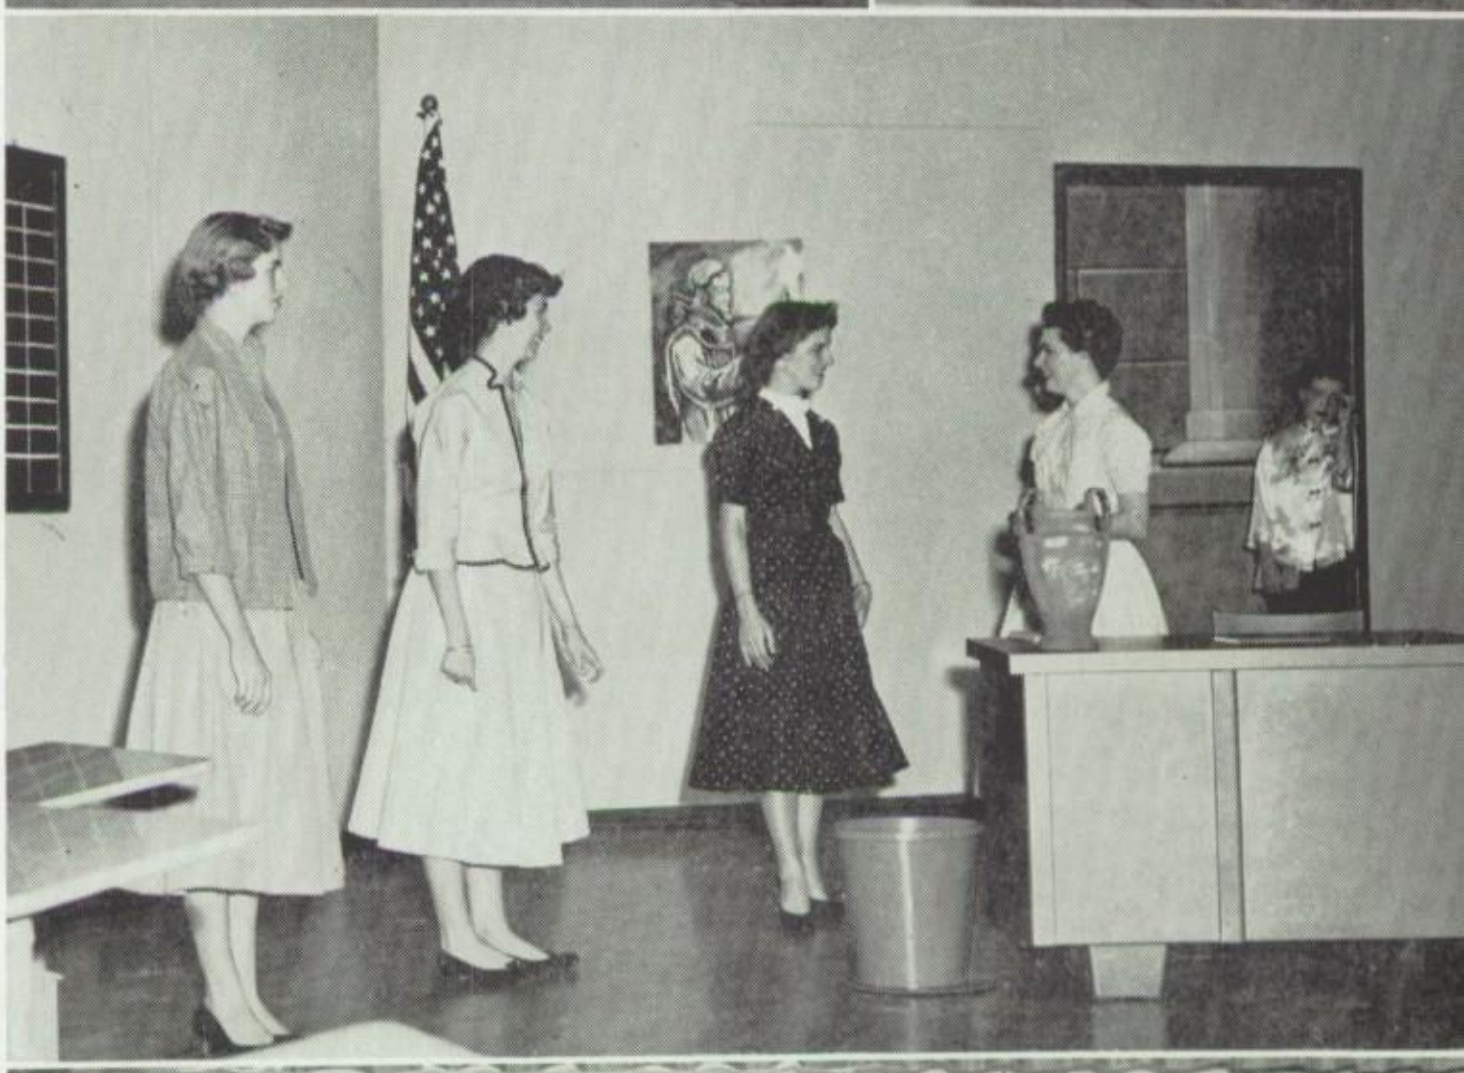
Here they accept returns from the winning teams, William Renninger and Anthony San Gregory; and Margaret Immele, Patricia's partner. They brought in $131.50 and $75.50 respectively.

'Our Miss Brooks'

Ted, the school's star athlete, played by Eugene Stefanelli, tried to persuade Miss Brooks, Constance Kimmet, to shorten his penalty of writing a hundred times, "I should not copy other people's examination papers."

Miss Finch, Jacqueline Rex, receives a cold stare from Miss Brooks as she gives away Miss Brooks' secret, "The ABC's of Sailing", to Hugo Longacre, the athletic coach, portrayed by Roger Welter.

Clara Liedorff, the music teacher, congratulates Miss Brooks on her fine dress rehearsal, while Miss Finch, Jacqueline Rex, and Jane, Georgianna Bland, look on. Kathleen Brain, the spoiled daughter of the school board's president, stands unobserved in the doorway.



"It's snowing harder", Miss Brooks exclaims as the principal, Anthony San Gregory, and Mrs. Allen, Ann Moran, stand aghast. Students who were helping Miss Brooks put on the demonstration of the sound effects and props are—Charlotte Amlin, Shirley Renninger, William Renninger, Martha Fisher, Diane Kistler, Kathleen Brain, Thomas Shook, Sue Omlor, and Barbara Welter.

MR. KARL ZALAR

MR. JOSEPH KUKOY

Senecas' Coaches

Mr. Zalar has now been head coach at Calvert for seven years. In both sports he has comd an excellent record. His basketball and football records are both well over the 50% k in games won. He has certainly done his best to give Calvert a high rating in the letic Department.

"Zip" never misses the opportunity to congratulate the team, if the boys have come ugh with a fine performance. Even if the team went down to defeat, but still tried hard gave the opposing team a rough battle, "Zip" would always give the team a good word.

In 1953, by far the best season in athletics in the history of Calvert, Mr. Zalar's team piled amazing records in both sports. The football squad had an excellent 8-1 record, le its most noticeable victory was its 53-6 win over Columbian in the City Championship.
basketball squad had a great 17-3 mark.

The boys who have played under Coach Zalar have always looked up to him for guide on and off the football field and basketball court. He will always listen to them and try traighten out their difficulties. "Zip" will long be remembered by his players for the t work he has done to help them develop strong characters.

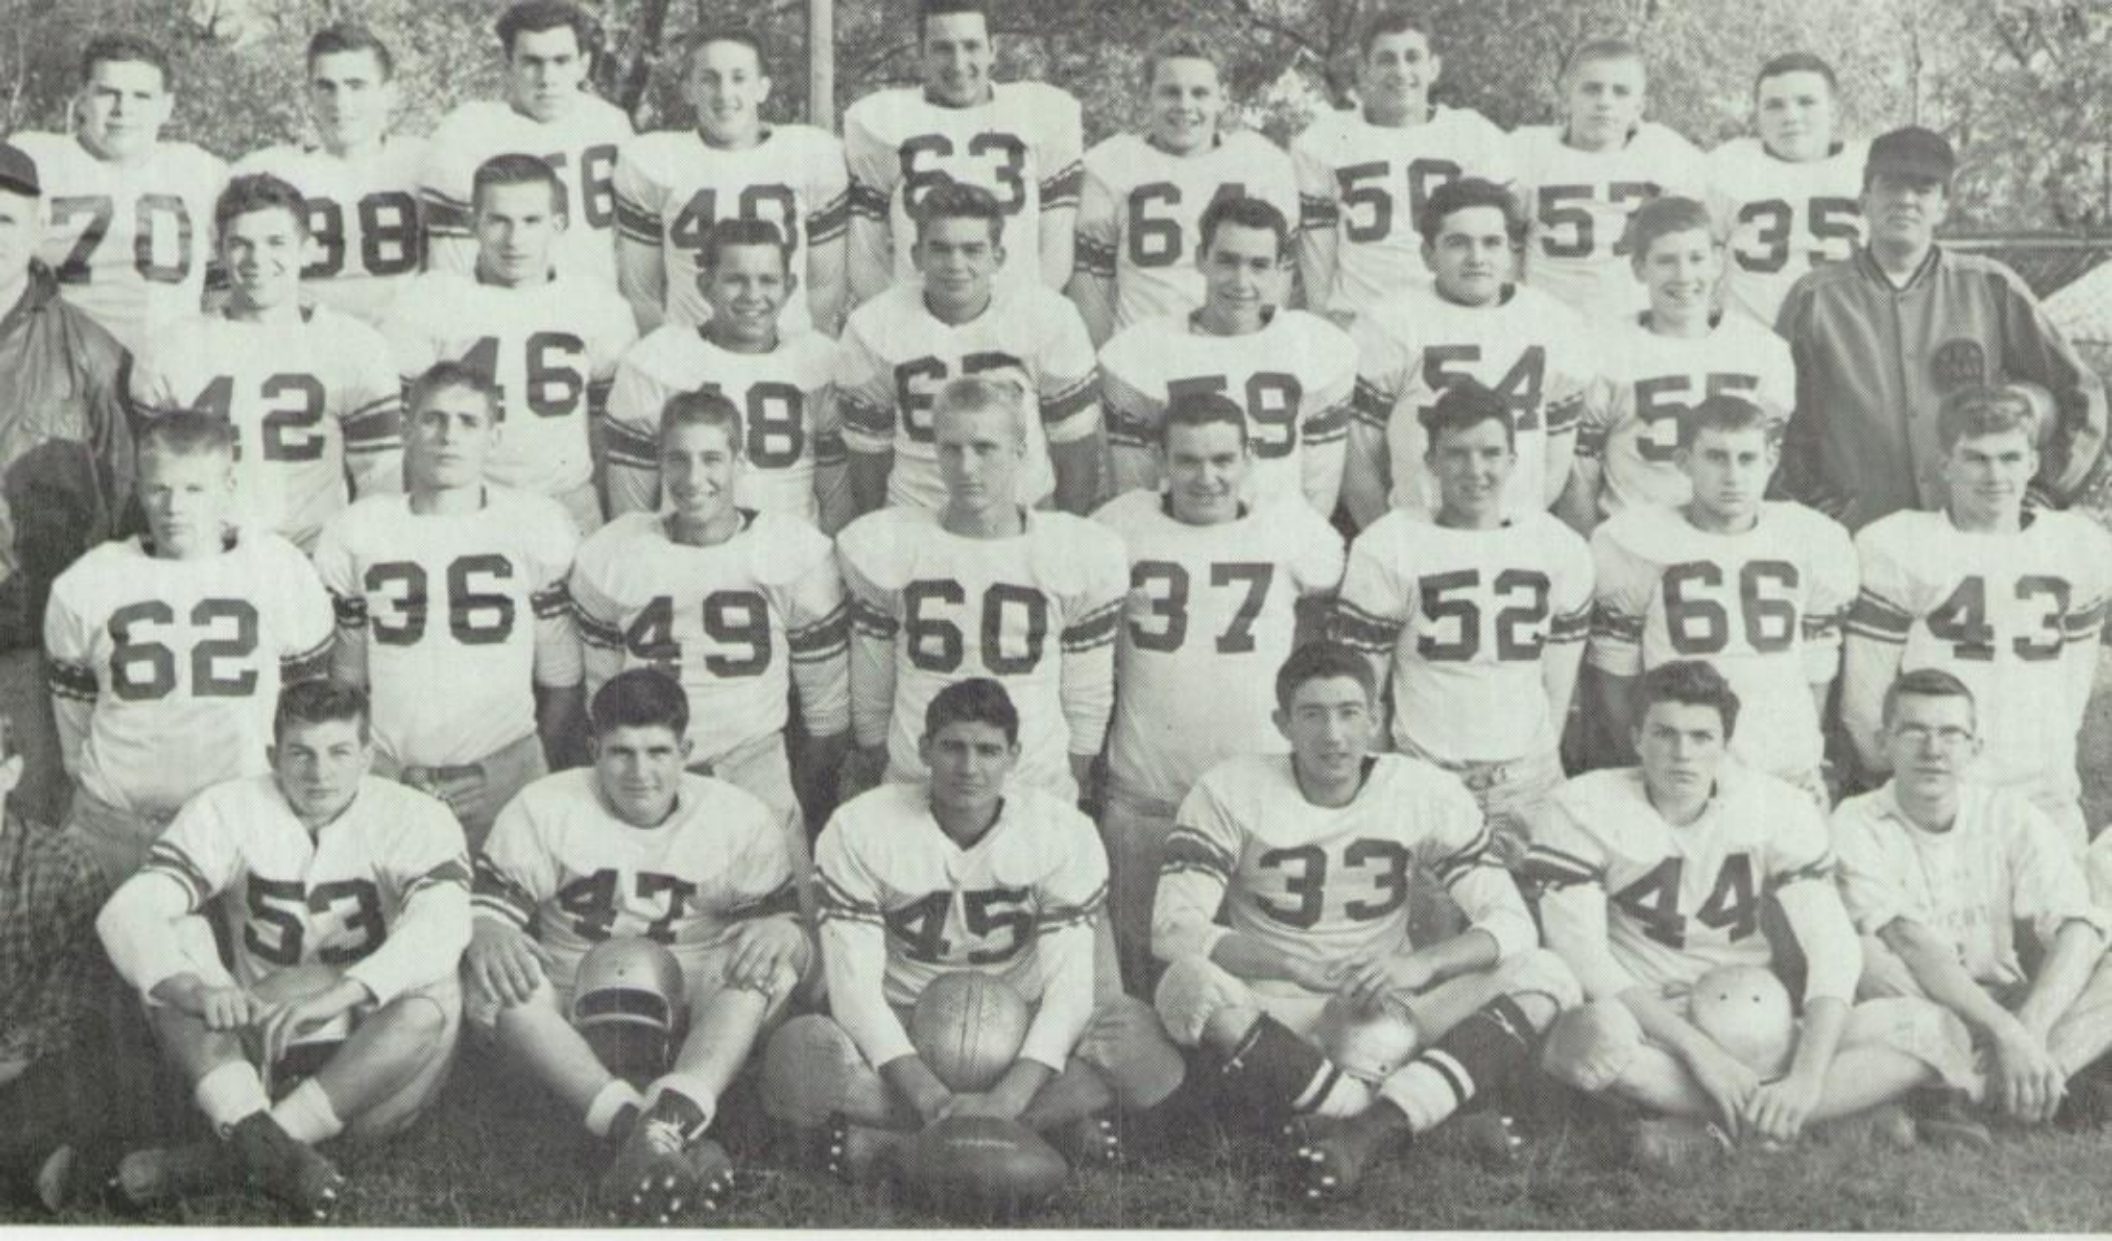
The Senecas' head coach, Karl Zalar, was assisted in basketball and football by Joseph Kukoy. This year, Mr. Kukoy will complete his third year as the Reserve coach on the hard court and backfield coach on the gridiron.

The Reserves, under Mr. Kukoy's care and guidance, stacked up a 4-7 record. However, their losses were usually by a few points. The reason for their fine display of fight was drilled into them by Mr. Kukoy's two important views of a good team, that is, determination and stamina.

This was true in football as well as basketball. As backfield coach, Mr. Kukoy turned out a fine running backfield by steady training and untiring effort in keeping the boys moving.

Kukoy, who was always willing to give up his time for the betterment of his athletes, should be congratulated for his fine efforts in both sports.

During his time at Calvert, Joe has successfully won the admiration of all those who came under his coaching.



FOURTH ROW: Daniel Fullerton, Daniel Leahy, Anthony San Gregory, Michael Wagner, David Stevenson, Roger Welter, Eugene Stefanelli, James Poignon, John Leahy.

THIRD ROW: Coach Karl Zalar, George Houck, Thomas Huss, David Seislove, Richard Dandurand, John Gatton, James Ring, Paul Boes, Assistant Coach Joseph Kukoy.

SECOND ROW: John Houck, Gilman Farley, James Dryfuse, Daniel Moran, James McNulty, Michael Leahy, Richard Bernard, Michael McClellan.

The Senecas' '55 Grid Record

At the start of the season Zip Zalar and Joe Kukoy were faced with the problem of building a team for the Senecas from seven returning lettermen. From these, five were linemen and two were backfield, men whose roles were mostly defensive.

From this supposedly weak offensive team came these surprising totals. Calvert outscored its opponents 129-102 points. Only once were the Senecas held scoreless, while the Zalarmen kept two opponents from crossing the final white stripe, and allowed only one team to cross it more than three times.

Calvert's wins were over Delphos St. John 7-0, Holland 29-6, and Mount Blanchard 61-0.

Its losses were to Bucyrus 19-0, Sandusky St. Mary's 20-16, Port Clinton 13-7, and Fremont St. Joseph's 26-6.

Calvert dropped the city championship game to Columbian in a tight heartbreaking 18-13 setback.

The senior lettermen were Anthony San Gregory, David Stevenson, Eugene Stefanelli, James Poignon, Roger Welter, and Michael Wagner.

San Gregory a halfback, showed great determination in hitting the line and digging out that extra yardage.

Stevenson, at end, was always downfield to spring a backfield man loose with a vicious block, or snag that long pass.

Showing great speed, Stefanelli ground out yardage by hitting the line, and sweeping the ends for long gains.

Most valuable award went to Michael Wagner, who displayed outstanding work at linebacker, and starred at center on offense.

Co-captain awards were given to James Poignon and Roger Welter.

Poignon a fullback, showed a great stamina by pounding the line for extra yardage, and dropping opposing backs with smashing tackles.

Welter, at quarterback, showed excellent field leadership in calling plays or throwing long passes, while his hard tackling stood out on defense.

Calvert's future shines brightly, for a total of 18 lettermen are returning for what looks like a very strong season. Of these thirteen are juniors and five are sophomores.

"Tony" SanGregory
"Smokey" Stefanelli
"Plungin" Poignon (Co-Captain)
"Rog" Welter (Co-Captain)
"Hair" Stevenson
"Wags" Wagner (Most Valuable)
"56"

Second Row: Salvatore Paradiso, Michael McCrory, William Black, Roger Welter, Paul Winterhalter, Fred Hohman.
First Row: Stanley Hohman, David Seislove, Joseph Hunter, Pasquale Patuto, and Paul Boes.

Basketball Review

The final results of Calvert's '55-'56 basketball season were not too impressive, but the tabulations will not reveal the fight, determination, and work of these green Senecas. As only one letterman returned for basketball, '55-'56 was a year of rebuilding.

Calvert took only one game in eleven outings. The lone win was over Mt. Zion.

The total over-all points that the opponents made were 912 to the Senecas' 635; they averaged 82 points a game to the Zalarmen's 53.

Shooting from the foul line, the opponents netted 194 points, while Calvert swished the nets for 139.

Drawing Port Clinton as the first game in the Class A Tournament, the Senecas were defeated 72-60. At the half time of the tournament game, the Zalarmen trailed by only one point as the score stood 38-37. But in the closing seconds of the game, Calvert was outscored by foul shots.

Top scoring honors went to junior forward Daniel Moran, who tallied 152 points, while his teammate, Gilman Farley, sophomore center, netted 132 markers. Roger Welter, senior guard, also hit the three figures column with 114 points.

Senior Cagers

Although lacking height, Roger Welter, senior guard, made up for it by his speed and his ability to shoot from out. Rog, a member of the varsity since his sophomore year, was a good scrapper on defense. He could constantly steal the ball from the opponents, when they were dribbling down the floor. Rog was also noted for being third high scorer on the team with 114 points. By his fine play, Rog certainly was a valuable man on the starting five.

Bill Black, senior forward and a member of the first five, with his speed, shooting ability, and rebounding was a real asset to the team. When the going was tough, he would never give up. Bill was also noted for his driving in ability. He would sometimes get the ball and dribble all the way down the floor and lay it in. Bill was fourth leading scorer on the team with 97 points.

The members of the team thought enough of Bill to elect him captain of this year's squad.

Most Valuable

Elected most valuable player of Calvert's basketball squad was junior forward, Dan Moran. He was not only high scorer for the Senecas this year, but also tops in the rebound department.

Dan could do anything on the hardcourt. He could take the ball down the floor, play the forward position, and was sometimes used in the pivot.

Because of his fine play and desire to win, Dan certainly deserved the award which was given to him.

At every game, rain or shine, you will see our vigorous and hard-working Varsity cheerleaders. They are always encouraging the boys with their "Go, Go, Go."

Although we have not had too many victories this past year, the cheerleaders have always managed to keep up the spirit of the school.

On a job well done, congratulations to Jeannette Lutz, Charlotte Amlin, Constance Kimmet, Bernadette Fleck, and Ruth Breidenbach.

Their Cry 'Fight! Senecas! Fight!'

Our peppy Reserve cheerleaders have given the Reserve team spirit, spunk, and the incentive to win. They have spurred the boys toward victory with their many new and cute cheers, and also kept up the morale of the school. These girls deserve a hearty cheer from everyone.

Keep up the good work next year, Ann Myers, Rebecca Jentgen, and Phyllis Rumschlag.

1955-1956 Alumni News

REUNION DAY 1955 - 1956

The 1955 - 1956 Alumni year began with a highly successful reunion day June 5, 1955. The day began with the Alumni officers attending High Mass celebrated by the Rev. Joseph D. Shenk, principal, in the Ursuline Chapel. This Mass was offered for the living and deceased members of the Alumni Association.

During the afternoon many members of the Alumni and their families attended the annual reunion, held in Calvert's new building. The afternoon was spent informally and was highlighted by the presence of Msgr. Anthony J. Gallagher who presided at Benediction.

Members of the Class of 1930 renewed old memories at dinner held in the school cafeteria on Sunday evening.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Officers elected at the annual reunion, always held the first Sunday after graduation, were Dr. Paul J. France, president, Miss Kathleen Warnement, vice-president, Miss Mary Tomecek, secretary, and Mr. Robert Burger, treasurer.

SUMMER DANCE

Blue and white decorated Meadowbrook Ballroom September 3, 1955, for one of the most successful Alumni dances ever held. Well over 250 members and their guests attended this traditional affair always held the Friday before Labor Day. Father Shenk, Father Dunn, and Father Dobmeyer were special gusets.

ALUMNI CERTIFICATES

A permanent Alumni certificate or card signifying membership in the Calvert Alumni Association has been inaugurated and printed. At present, these will be signed and presented to the members of each graduating class.

CLASS SECRETARIES

Selection and appointment of class secretaries has been accomplished during the past year. The purpose of such action is to improve the efficiency of the Alumni officers in carrying out their duties in an ever-enlarging group. The Calvert Alumni Association as of June, 1956, totals 1854.

LIBRARY BENEFITS

The Alumni Association has continued to aid financially its permanent project, the Calvert Library Fund. During the past year this aid has made possible the acquisition of many new reference works, books of travel, biography, poetry, and fiction, and the rebinding of former copies of the Calvert News.
